American Women in Radio & Television (AWRT) Announces National and Local Gracie Allen Awards® Winners

Grand Award Winners to be Announced at Annual Awards Gala Featuring Broadcasting and Cable's Biggest Names

February 25, 2004 (McLean, VA) – American Women in Radio and Television (AWRT) is pleased to announce the 2004 winners of the Annual Gracie Allen Awards®. National Award winners will be presented at a black-tie Gala in the Grand Ballroom of the New York Hilton Hotel on Tuesday, June 22, 2004. Local Market Award winners will be announced at a luncheon on Monday, June 21, 2004, also at the New York Hilton Hotel. The Gracie Allen Awards® (also known as the Gracies®) recognizes exemplary programming created for women, by women and about women in all facets of electronic media.

Each year, the Gracies Gala attracts the best and the brightest in radio, television, cable and new media. This year, from HBO/Sex and the City's Sarah Jessica Parker and CBS News' Lara Logan to WE: Women's Entertainment/Mix It Up's Courteney Cox and CNN's Larry King, the National Gracie Allen Award winners represent a broad cross-section of outstanding actors, producers, writers and correspondents (see attached sheet for complete list of National and Local Market winners).

On the Local Radio Front, Magic 106.7/WMJX host Candy O'Terry took the Individual Achievement Award for Program Host honors, as well as Philadelphia, Pennsylvania's WHYY, for Home Health, which was awarded in the Best News Feature - Soft News category. WABC-New York received an award for Protect Our Children: At Home and in the Street for Best Television Children/Adolescent Program while Dallas' KERA-PBS was awarded in the Best Television News-Single Entry category for Women in Power.

"The Gracies' recognition of exemplary programming inspires excellence in all facets of electronic media. This year's list of winners is a reflection of the depth of the talent serving our industry," stated AWRT 2003/2004 President, Melodie Virtue, attorney/owner, Garvey Schubert Barer.

"Year after year we continue to experience the profound impact that programming for, by and about women has on our society. Thank goodness there exists an event to recognize the great work of women in our industry," added AWRT Executive Director Maria Efantis Brennan.

The Gracies are presented by the Foundation of AWRT, the philanthropic arm of AWRT that supports educational programs, charitable activities, public service campaigns and scholarships to benefit the public, the electronic media and allied fields. The Gracie Allen Awards, established in 1975, honor programming and individuals of the highest caliber in all facets of radio, television, cable and web-based media, including news, drama, comedy, commercials, public service, documentary, and sports.

About AWRT: The year 2001 marked the 50th Anniversary and a golden highlight for American Women in Radio and Television (AWRT) Inc., the longest established professional association dedicated to advancing the impact of women in the electronic media and allied fields. Headquartered in the Washington, DC-metropolitan area, AWRT carries forth its mission by educating, advocating and acting as a resource to its members and the industry at large. Founded in 1951, AWRT works to improve the quality of electronic media; promote the entry, development and advancement of women in the media; serve as a medium for communication and idea exchange; and become active in community concerns.

About The Foundation of AWRT: The Foundation of AWRT is the philanthropic arm of American Women in Radio and Television, supporting educational programs, charitable activities, public service campaigns and scholarships to benefit the public, the electronic media and allied fields. The Foundation of AWRT has created partnerships and joint-initiatives with the National Middle School Association, the Emma Bowen Foundation, the American Red Cross and other organizations that are philosophically aligned with the mission of the Foundation of AWRT. The Foundation supports several public service campaigns including most recently AWRT Empowering America which pays tribute to many of America's most pioneering and inspiring women. Through this initiative, the Foundation of AWRT has adopted needy urban middle schools around the country and provided educational donations derived from collateral based on the Empowering America program. The Foundation also produces nationally acclaimed recognition programs including the Gracie Allen Awards®, a live, New York-based gala that awards exemplary programming created for, by, and about women.

For more information about AWRT and the Foundation of AWRT, including membership, call its headquarters at (703) 506-3290, or visit its web site at www.awrt.org.
