Suze Orman Wins Most Gracie TV Awards

AWRT Recognizes Orman for Having the Most Gracies for a Television Personality

May 31, 2007 (McLean, VA) – On June 18, 2007, American Women in Radio and Television (AWRT) will present Suze Orman with her fourth Gracie Award, more than any other television personality in the history of the Gracie Awards. Orman will be awarded a Gracie in the category of Outstanding Talk Show for The Suze Orman Show, which airs Saturday evenings on CNBC.

“We are thrilled to recognize Suze and the entire crew of The Suze Orman Show with this special honor. Suze represents precisely what the Gracies stand for – exemplary programming created for women, by women and about women,” stated AWRT President Maria Efantis Brennan.

The award will be presented at the 2007 Gracie Awards Gala on the evening of June 18 at the New York Marriott Marquis. The Gala, hosted by legendary CBS Sportscaster and Pro Football Hall of Famer Lesley Visser, recognizes exemplary programming and individual achievements in all facets of electronic media.

Show Celebrates 5th Anniversary

The Suze Orman Show also celebrated its 5th Anniversary this year, now airing in 18 additional countries. Covering today's hottest financial topics, the show helps people make the connection between self worth and net worth. In a fast-paced, down-to-earth and entertaining format, Orman candidly tells her audience the truth about money so viewers can change the course of their financial destiny.

About Suze Orman

USA Today has called Suze Orman “a force in the world of personal finance” and a “one-woman financial-advice powerhouse.” She is a two-time Emmy award winner and the author of six consecutive New York Times bestsellers. Suze has written, co-produced, and hosted six PBS specials based on those books, and is the most successful single fundraiser in the history of public television. She hosts her own national award winning CNBC-TV show, which airs every Saturday night in the U.S. and 18 additional countries. She is the contributing finance editor to O: The Oprah Magazine, the Costco Connection Magazine and for Money Matters on Yahoo’s personal finance site. As a well-known motivational speaker, Suze focuses on helping people change the way they think, feel and act with their money.

About AWRT: The year 2007 marks the 56th Anniversary of American Women in Radio & Television (AWRT), the longest established professional association dedicated to advancing women in media and entertainment. AWRT carries forth its mission by educating, advocating and acting as a resource to its members and the industry at large. Founded in 1951, AWRT works to improve the quality of electronic media; promote the entry, development and advancement of women in the field; foster communication and idea exchange; and give back to the community we serve.

About The Foundation of AWRT: The Foundation of AWRT is the philanthropic arm of American Women in Radio and Television, supporting educational programs, charitable activities, public service campaigns and scholarships to benefit the public, the electronic media and allied fields. The Foundation of AWRT has created partnerships and joint-initiatives with the National Middle School Association, the Emma Bowen Foundation, the American Red Cross and other organizations that are philosophically aligned with the mission of the Foundation of AWRT. The Foundation supports several public service campaigns including most recently AWRT Empowering America which pays tribute to many of America's most pioneering and inspiring women. Through this initiative, the Foundation of AWRT has adopted needy urban middle schools around the country and provided educational donations derived from collateral based on the Empowering America program. The Foundation also produces nationally acclaimed recognition programs including the Gracie Allen Awards®, a live, New York-based gala that awards exemplary programming created for, by, and about women.
